

eStatement Portal: One-Time Registration Guide

1. How can I register for eStatement service, when I received the One-Time-Password in the Contract Note / Monthly Statement?

[Go to Q2 if you received email notification from us]

To register for eStatement service, get ready the following and follow 4 simple steps (Step A to Step D):

- (a) a valid email address; and
- (b) One-Time-Password (“OTP”)

OTP is a 10-digit numeric password printed in the notification auto-generated by our system and sent to clients in the following channels, where relevant:

- (a) Contract Statement dated 18 Sept 2018 and later;
- (b) Monthly Statement of Sept 2018 and later;
- (c) 2018’s year-end Cash Balance Listing;
- (d) Margin Statement; or
- (e) Foreign Stock Statement.

If you did not receive your OTP, please contact us using one of channels stated in Q12 below.

Go Green We are moving to eStatement on 1 March 2019!
Effective 1 March 2019, hardcopy Contract Statement and Monthly Statement will no longer be issued to clients. If you wish to receive paper Statement, a fee of RM2.00 will be imposed on each hardcopy Contract Statement issued. Visit <https://estatement.affinhwang.com> for more information or please call +603-21431113/+604-2630050, or WhatsApp us at +6011-6508 5288, or contact your Dealer's Representative.

Dear CLIENT NAME

We will be moving to eStatement on 1 March 2019. As a socially responsible organisation, this is part of our continuous effort to promote environmental sustainability and reduction in paper consumption. This is also in line with the Securities Commission's initiative to phase out issuance of physical copies of statement. We encourage all our clients to make the switch to eStatement before 1 March 2019.

Why switch to eStatement?

- Fast - No more waiting for statements in the mail
- Convenient - Access your statements anytime, anywhere
- Secured - Statements are password protected
- Manageable - Access past statements
- Free - No fee charges

Here is how you can sign-up for the eStatement:

- 1 Visit <https://estatement.affinhwang.com>
(You can also click on the "eStatement" tab in our eInvest trading website)
- 2 Click on "Register"
- 3 Register by filling in the registration form and your One Time Password (OTP).
Your OTP is indicated below
- 4 Upon successful registration, an activation link will be sent to your email
- 5 Activate your account, setup your security settings, and start using eStatement
- 6 To open any of the files, the password is your NRIC/Passport Number without dashes or spacing

With this eStatement Portal, you will be able to download your statements for the last 3 months. If you are currently receiving your statements via email, you will also continue to receive the emails. Sign up for the eStatement Portal today! It's Fast, Convenient, Secured, Manageable and Free!

eStatement Portal: One-Time Registration Guide

You have activated eStatement services and you can start using the facility.

3. I have family member who wants to share a same email address for eStatement registration. Can an email address be registered for more than one client?

No. One email address can only be registered for one client.

4. Do I need to input '-' in the NRIC field?

It is optional. However, to view and open your statements, you are required to input the password which is your NRIC number without '-'.

5. My passport number has the sign '/', do I need to input it under NRIC/Passport field?

Yes. It is required.

6. What is the login ID to access the eStatement portal?

Login ID shall be your email address registered in eStatement portal.

7. I have multiple trading accounts. Do I need to register multiple times?

No worries, the statements of all your trading accounts (except external margin financing account) can be accessed through single log-in ID.

8. For eStatement registration, do I have to use back the same email address as per the email address used in eContract?

No. If the email address is different, the email address registered in the eStatement portal will supersede the eContract's email address.

eStatement Portal: One-Time Registration Guide

9. Will the email address register for eStatement supersede the email address other than eContract email, for example email registered for eInvest Online Trading Portal and ePayment?

No. The email address registered for eInvest Online Trading Portal and e-Payment is for not for the purpose of delivery of contract statements.

10. How to change my email address after registration?

You are required to fill in an updating form and submit it to any branch. Our branch staff will inform you once your email address is updated.

11. What software is required to download and view the Email or e-Statement on my computer/mobile phone?

Any PDF Readers e.g. Adobe Acrobat Reader 4.0 or higher.

12. If I have queries or have difficulties accessing your eStatement portal, how shall I contact you?
